This Notice provides information about your privacy rights, and describes how information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Your privacy as a client is protected under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), a federal law that provides privacy protections and patient rights with regard to the use and disclosure of your Protected Health Information (PHI) used for the purpose of treatment, payment, and health care operations.

I. USES AND DISCLOSURES OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

A. Permissible Uses and Disclosures Without Your Written Authorization: I may use and disclose PHI without your written authorization, excluding Psychotherapy Notes and Reports, as described in Section II, for certain purposes described below. The examples provided in each category are not meant to be exhaustive, but instead are meant to describe the types of uses and disclosures that are permissible under Federal and State of Washington law.

1. Treatment: I may use and disclose PHI in order to provide treatment to you. For example, I may use PHI to diagnose and provide counseling service to you. In addition, I may disclose PHI to other health care providers involved in your treatment. This includes clinical supervisors and case consultants who assist in my professional development and are bound to mental health confidentiality laws. I participate in supervision and consultation so that I may provide high quality services for your benefit.

2. Health care operations: I may use and disclose PHI in connection with my health care operations, including accreditation, certification, licensing or credentialing activities. I will notify you in advance of any such disclosure.

3. Required or permitted by law: I may use or disclose PHI when I am required or permitted to do so by law, or in the following situations:

    a) Duty to warn: Your PHI may be disclosed if I determine a need to alert an intended victim of a serious threat to their health. For example, this may occur if you reveal intentions to kill or harm another person. I am obligated to take necessary action to avert a serious threat to the health or safety of others.

b) Danger to self: Your PHI may be disclosed if I determine that you may kill or seriously harm yourself. For example, this may occur if you reveal that you are planning to commit suicide. I am obligated to take necessary action to avert a serious threat to your health or safety.

c) Child or elder abuse or neglect: Your PHI may be disclosed if you report or I reasonably suspect any child or elder abuse or neglect. For example, if you reveal that you have physically harmed a child then I will need to notify Children's Protective Services (CPS).

d) Court order: Your PHI may be disclosed if I am presented with a court ordered to do so. For example, this may occur if you have any legal involvement and a judge or law enforcement agency has ordered me to testify or release records.

e) Crime against me or within office premises: Your PHI may be disclosed if you commit or threaten to commit a crime against me or within my office premises. This includes damage to property.

f) Other disclosures: Your PHI may be disclosed for public health activities, health oversight activities, including disclosures to State or Federal agencies authorized to access PHI. Your PHI may be disclosed for research when approved by an institutional review board, to military or national security agencies, coroner, medical examiners, and correctional institutions or otherwise as authorized by law. Your PHI may be disclosed to necessary parties involved if you file a legal or administrative claim against me. Your identifying information may be disclosed to debt collection agency personnel if you fail to pay for my professional services by our agreed upon time period.

B. Uses and Disclosures Requiring Your Written Authorization:

3. Payment: I may not disclose PHI to your insurance company for payment purposes without your written authorization.
4. Other Uses and Disclosures: Uses and disclosures other than those described in Section I-A above will only be made with your written authorization. For example, you will need to sign an authorization form before I can send PHI to your life insurance company, to a school, to your attorney, or to your health care providers. You may revoke any such authorization at any time.
